1. The boxes in Figures 2-6 must be labeled. See 37 CFR 1.84.
2. The specification is objected to. Headings must be provided for the sections of the specification.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As to claims 28 and 29, "traced out" is indefinite.

4. Applicants' claim for priority has not been completed since certified copies of the priority documents have not been received.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Willrett.

Art Unit: 3662

Willrett teaches the claimed method and structure for calculating the signal delay of a "payload signal traveled through a communication channel" including calculating the signal delay on the basis of the first time stamp information and the second time stamp information (column 2, lines 52-60).

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gao et al.

Gao et al teaches the claimed method and structure for calculating the signal delay of a "payload signal traveled through a communication channel" including calculating the signal delay on the basis of the first time stamp information and the second time stamp information (column 3, lines 28-44).
